

MARYLAND WOMEN'S HERITAGE TRAIL

Follow the footsteps

Follow the footsteps and wander the paths where Maryland women have built our State throughout history. Follow this trail of tales and learn about the contributions made by women of diverse backgrounds throughout Maryland – from waterwomen on the Eastern Shore to craftswomen of Western Maryland, to civil rights activists of Baltimore and Central Maryland, to women who worked the land in Southern Maryland, to scientists, artists, writers, educators, athletes, civic, business and religious leaders in every region and community. Visit these sites and learn about women's accomplishments. Follow in the footsteps of inspirational Maryland women and honor our grandmothers, mothers, aunts, cousins, daughters and sisters whose contributions have shaped our history.
