Talbot County Suffrage Marker on the National Votes for Women Trail

Mary Bartlett Dixon

Dedication Celebration ☪ May 14, 2022, 1pm

Mary Bartlett Dixon

1873-1957

Dixon was a noted grassroots activist for the Suffrage Movement and organized "parlor and porch" meetings, pamphleteering, marches, and petition drives throughout the state. She served as President of the Just Franchise League.

Just Franchise League

1901-1919

Mary Jenkins and Mary Bartlett Dixon led Talbot County's historic Just Franchise League from 1909 to 1919. The League was located on Washington Street and was one of many networks whose goal was to further the local suffrage movement.

Mary Jenkins

1862-1947

Known as "Miss Mary", Mary Jenkins was Maryland's representative at state suffrage conventions and was the secretary of the Just Franchise League in Talbot County and was seen as a faithful Talbot County leader for the cause.
