

Beatrice D. Dane

As a retired senior staff financial analyst of a major defense company, Bea's current goals are to give back to her community through volunteering with organizations that promote women's leadership, equity and equality. With over 34 years of experience in corporate finance at IBM and Lockheed Martin (LM) Corporations, she led the implementation and administration of the financial planning software used by over 800 financial analysts at the LM Federal Division. Other experience includes project budgeting, scheduling, and cost accounting.

Bea has an MBA from Marist College, New York; a BS with major in accounting from Austin Peay State University, Tennessee; and two years hotel administration at Cornell University, New York.

Memberships and volunteer positions: President, American Association of University Women (AAUW), Howard County Maryland Branch, 2014-18; Treasurer, AAUW Howard County Maryland Branch 2013-14 and 2018-23; AAUW Maryland VP of Funds 2022-24; Volunteer Docent, Maryland Women's Heritage Center, Baltimore, 2014-present; Member, Mount Vernon Belvedere Association, Baltimore; Volunteer, Day's End Farm Horse Rescue, Lisbon, Maryland; Volunteer, Glenwood Community and Senior Center, Glenwood, Maryland; Member DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution)

Hobbies and Family: Spending time with family (husband retired Howard County math teacher; son lives in Columbia, Maryland); Travel – US and International; Reading, history and swimming